one Loobbah applied for the land in question for wet cultivation. Thereupon the petitioner Karigonda and another Andani urged that they were the Kulwadis (cultivators) of the land and that therefore it should be granted to them on apprais-ment. Thereupon it was given to them, that is, one half assessed at Rs 9-1-2 was granted to Kanya and the other half assessed at Rs 9-1-2 to Andani. But during the Revenue Survey settle-ment, which took place in 1880-81, it was treated as Kharab and struck off their Khate on the ground of its being the bed of the breached tank of the village.
